

Globetrotting

continued from page 7

LIBERIA

Buchanan, Bassa County

Maxwell Whea

- In the last two months we have had four baptisms; seven members of a denominational church have been visiting us and some of them were baptized

Monrovia

Maxwell Whea/Sammy Yarkpawolo

- Our teaching topic “How Is One Saved?” resulted in the baptism of Victoria Kollie (25)

Weala

George Tengbeh

- The radio broadcast brought five souls to Christ in baptism, and two were restored to the church who were baptized in 1962 in Baypolu

MALAWI

Blantyre

Yunusu Mataka

- The effectiveness of this program is continually proving outstanding with a number of responses from top government officials, academics, chiefs, the general community, and leaders from different religions, including Muslims from within and beyond the borders of Malawi
- Mr. Makatani, a denominational pastor, surprised Rodgers Chitsulo by encouraging and appreciating what is being taught on the radio; a Muslim leader is asking for a Chichewa Bible citing some of the verses from teachings

- “My legs and my eyes fail me to go church, but one thing I thank God, I can hear. It has been a great blessing for me when I listen to spiritual radio programs such as Kodi Mulipati?” [Sister Enala Magombo Chidziwa (84)]

MALI

Bamako

Peter Ofori/Audence Théra

- The message on marriage drew the attention of a the Kalambilyes who sought me out for pre-marital counseling
- Mary Ofori Amponsah, our second born, obeyed the Gospel and was immersed

